Situation Vacant General Manager Corporate

- Lead Business Excellence
- Broad Scope
- Lifestyle Destination

Reporting to the CEO, the General Manager Corporate is one of three General Managers that make a major contribution to the residents in the Greater Mildura region. This position will see you liaise externally with the community, key business partners and the State and Federal Government to manage community assets and infrastructure.

Leading the operational areas of Finance, Organisational Development, Corporate Administration and Information Systems, you will be rewarded with the opportunity to work right across the organisation. Working as part of the executive leadership team, your ability to work in partnership and offer strategic input into projects will be highly valued.

You will work closely with your team to support the organisation and Council to deliver innovative, strategic outcomes for the community. Contemporary leadership and the promotion of the Mildura Rural City Council "Principles of Excellence" will be the keys to your success in this role.
