

School crossings and parking

School crossing supervisors are there to help people and keep children safe.

Patience: Everyone needs to be considerate.

Parents trying to get children to school need to be patient and cross at the crossing.

Cars must not park over crossings. It is illegal and makes crossings dangerous.

Speed: Restrictions are essential to protect young inexperienced school children.

Be considerate and watch for young children. Report problems or offenders to the school or the Police.

