Clean up properties ahead of Fire Danger Period

Residents are being urged to ensure their properties are prepared for the upcoming Fire Danger Period.

All property owners are required to keep their properties free from fire hazards including clearing properties of long vegetation, rubbish, abandoned machinery and unused materials. Council Officers will soon begin inspecting properties across the municipality. Penalty notices can be issued to landowners who do not carry out required clean-up work.

To report a concern, please contact 03 5018 8100. For more information visit Council's website.

Disaster preparedness and recovery for first responders and emergency support service providers

First responders and emergency support service providers are invited to hear from David Younger, one of Australia's leading natural disaster recovery and preparedness consultants. David is a clinic psychologist and has been supporting communities throughout Australia since the 2009 Black Saturday fires.

Thursday 26 October 2023 at Powerhouse Hall, Hugh King Drive, Mildura
First responders session: 10am to 12:30pm
Service providers session: 1:30pm to 3:30pm
These free sessions are an opportunity for people working in the industry to come together and hear from David about his work across Australia and the opportunities for recovery and growth within adversity.

For more information and to register visit mildura.vic.gov.au/events or call our Community Recovery Officers on 03 5018 8100.

Harm Minimisation from Gambling Policy

The community is invited to provide feedback on the draft Harm Minimisation from Gambling Policy. The draft policy outlines Council's approach to minimising the social, economic and wellbeing harm associated with gambling in our community.

The policy considers three main focus areas:

- Promoting and supporting alternative social and recreational pursuits
- Council leadership in harm minimisation from gambling
- Partnerships and advocacy.

Have your say at yoursay.mildura.vic.gov.au by 5pm, Friday 3 November 2023.

Share the Caring afternoon tea event

Council is partnering with Carers Victoria to celebrate and thank our local carers as part of National Carers Week.

Carers from across our region are invited to attend a free afternoon tea, featuring live music, to be held from 2pm to 4pm on Monday 16 October at Powerhouse Place.
