Draft Ouyen Walking and Cycling Plan available for public comment

Developed to address and support active transport participation, pedestrian and cyclist safety, and road safety more generally.

The Draft Ouyen Walking and Cycling Plan has been developed following an extensive community and stakeholder consultation period, a review of the existing footpath network and past community enquiries related to road safety, an analysis of traffic and pedestrian movements and a review of recent crash data.

Feedback closes 5pm on Sunday 1 February 2026 and can be provided by visiting yoursay.mildura.vic.gov.au/ouyenwalking

Hard copies of the Draft Plan and survey are also available by visiting Council's Ouyen Customer Service Centre, Ouyen Bakery, Jacks Café, Ouyen Gym and Neighbourhood House.

Quick Response Grants now open!

Grants up to $2000 are now available to support projects and initiatives that address an immediate need in the community.

Grants are available to not-for-profit and charitable groups, organisations, artists and arts-related businesses.

Applications will remain open until May 2026 and will be assessed and evaluated once received.

Visit mildura.vic.gov.au/QuickResponse for more information, eligibility criteria and to start the application process.

Be a part of our 2026 Harmony Day celebrations!
