Notice is hereby given that the winners of Mildura Rural City Council's 2025 Christmas Lights Competition have been drawn.

1st prize (valued at $500) – David and Tegan Chick, Coorong Avenue, Irymple

2nd prize (valued at $250) – Loren and Chris Lawn, Darlington Parade, Mildura

3rd prize (valued at $250) – Teana and Sean Pain, Barclay Boulevard, Red Cliffs

The winners have been notified and each received a Mildura City Heart voucher to spend at local businesses. Congratulations to the winners and thank you to everyone who decorated their homes and businesses.

This year more than 100 addresses entered the 2025 Christmas Lights Competition and the online map was accessed 9,500+ times.

A special thanks to the Sunraysia Daily for their continued support of this initiative.

Draft Ouyen Walking and Cycling Plan available for public comment

Developed to address and support active transport participation, pedestrian and cyclist safety, and road safety more generally.

Some of the key recommendations of the plan include:

- Improving links to key destinations within the township (Ouyen P-12 College, Oke Street shops, Blackburn Park, Ouyen Lake etc)
- Creating safer crossing opportunities at key locations along the Calder and Mallee Highways
- Upgrading/providing shared user paths to provide off-road facilities for connections to key destinations

Feedback closes 5pm on Sunday 1 February 2026 and can be provided by visiting yoursay.mildura.vic.gov.au/ouyenwalking

Hard copies of the Draft Plan and survey are also available by visiting Council's Ouyen Customer Service Centre, Ouyen Bakery, Jacks Café, Ouyen Gym and Neighbourhood House.

Quick Response Grants now open!

Grants up to $2000 are now available to support projects and initiatives that address an immediate need in the community.

This includes:

- Community workshops
- Small revegetation projects
- Marketing and promotion of a community project
- Emergency response and relief, and more!

Grants are available to not-for-profit and charitable groups, organisations, artists and arts-related businesses.

Applications will remain open until May 2026 and will be assessed and evaluated once received.

Visit mildura.vic.gov.au/QuickResponse for more information, eligibility criteria and to start the application process.

Be a part of our 2026 Harmony Day celebrations!
