Not all people have a funeral service or place a death notice in the paper. To find out information regarding these:

North West Funerals will reply to an email regarding a death which contains Name, date of birth and any other information about the deceased you have.

McGlynn Hunt require you to be next of kin or the executor (State Trustee, Solicitor) to find out this information or if you contact them, they will ask the next of kin if they can release the information to you.

If you are next of kin you can apply for a death certificate through births, deaths, marriages in each Australian State
